He'd go to work, he'd come home, I'd fix him a drink, we'd have dinner. Then I found out, single, my ass
Not only was he married, well, he had six wives
One of those Mormons, you know

So that night, when he came home I fixed him his drink as usual You know, some guys just can't hold their arsenic

My sister, Veronica and I had this double act And my husband, Charlie traveled around with us With the last number in our act We did 20 acrobatic tricks in our world

One two three four five, splits, spread eagles Flip flops, back flips, one right after the other Well, this one night we were in Cicero

The three of us, we were in this hotel room Boozin' and havin' a few laughs and we ran out of ice So I went out to get some

I come back, open the door There's Veronica and Charlie Doing number seventeen, the spread eagle

Well, I was in such a state of shock, I completely blacked out I can't remember a thing, it wasn't until later When I was washing the blood off my hands I even knew they were dead

(orchestra cue)

ALL:

(sung)

They had it coming, they had it coming They had it coming all along I didn't do it, in spite if I'd done it How could you tell me that I was wrong?

(orchestra vamp 3)

GIRL 6 (Lipschitz):

I loved Alvin Lipschitz, he was a real artistic guy, sensitive, a painter But he was always trying to find himself He go out every night looking for himself And on the way, he found Ruth, Gladys, Rosemary and Irving

I guess you can say we broke up because of artistic differences He saw himself as alive and I saw him dead

(orchestra cue)

ALL:

(sung)

They had it comin', they had it comin' They had it comin' all along 'Cause if they used us and they abused us How could they tell us that we were wrong?

He had it coming, he had it coming
He only had himself to blame

I betcha you would have done the same
